

damascus

STYLE BRIEF

Project Title: Woes

Project Brief: Explore the following issues through styling and clothing:

POVERTY

DISCRIMINATION AND OPPRESSION

SORROW

Your work should address these areas creatively and with sensitivity. You can use the prompts as a starting point, or work towards conveying these concepts in an abstract way. Your final work should be available in .jpg and high resolution pdf format for display on the site.

Submission Requirements

- * Photograph or scan of all pieces of project sent as jpg min 1024*768
- * Layout instructions (for page and interactivity)
- * Identify or provide thumbnail from provided images. (if this is not provided clearly, a choice will be made for you)
- * Single line thumbnail description(max 5 words)
- * Long description for project to go on project page.

Send your work to marziya@thedamascusmagazine.com

Please keep in mind that any submissions to the magazine are accepted at the discretion of the Senior Creative Team. If your work is not accepted, we can provide feedback on request. Any work that is accepted for damascus magazine will be displayed on the website and may be used in print publications in the future. Creators will be credited and retain copyright over the actual work. The damascus team offers creative and technical support as well as resources to aid you in the process.

Feel free to forward any questions and queries.

Project submission deadline (OPEN)

You retain the copyright and moral rights to be recognised as the author of your original work, but authorise damascus to disseminate this work through existing and future channels, including web and print. All work will be covered by the attributed-share alike cc licence.

